

What is claimed is:

1. A writing or marking on a transparent plastic member, characterised in that the writing or marking is formed by an array of uniform protrusions on the rear side of the transparent plastic member.
2. A writing or marking on a transparent plastic member according to claim 1, characterised in that the protrusions are rotation symmetric.
3. A writing or marking on a transparent plastic member according to claim 2, characterised in that the protrusions are circular.
4. A writing or marking on a transparent plastic member according to claim 3, characterised in that the protrusions has the shape spherical segments.
5. A writing or marking on a transparent plastic member according to claim 4, characterised in that the protrusions has the shape of half spheres.
6. A writing or marking on a transparent plastic member according to claim 1, characterised in that the plastic member forms a part of a medical device.
7. A writing or marking on a transparent plastic member according to claim 1, characterised in that the plastic member forms a part of a packaging.